Sally made her international debut in 2005 and has amassed more than 150 caps for England and Great Britain combined. She competed at the London 2012 Olympics where she won a bronze medal. Sally is now a full-time teacher and hockey coach, supporting the development of elite junior and senior hockey players.

ENGLISH TEACHING

LEARN IN CLASS AND ON THE PITCH

Our carefully designed English syllabus is based on the CLIL approach, which is used in prestigious English teaching schools worldwide. The focus is on sport, while also gaining a broader understanding of English in the wider world. Teachers live on campus and take a student-centred approach in the classroom. They ensure students communicate in English throughout the camp in order to create a unique and immersive English environment.

WHAT YOU GET

-  13-14 HOURS OF ENGLISH LESSONS PER WEEK
-  1:12 TEACHER TO STUDENT RATIO (AVERAGE)
-  INDIVIDUAL REPORT TO TAKE HOME

HOW IT WORKS

Before the course starts, students take an online English grammar and vocabulary test. On the first day of camp, a speaking assessment with their teacher further helps determine their level.

Students are then divided into classes within their age group, ranging from beginner to advanced levels. Classes are engineered to focus on general English and sports-related English. Using the topic of sport engages students with a common interest in the classroom and equips them with useful vocabulary for their coaching sessions. Lessons are fun and interactive, using a combination of traditional classroom techniques, active participation and project work.

At the end of each week, students will receive an English progress report, along with some advice from their teacher on how to continue improving their English at home.

“

Players join us from all around the world, which creates a really diverse and exciting environment. As coaches, it's so rewarding to see them develop through the camp, with everyone learning from each other's different playing styles and perspectives of the world!”

HOCKEY DIRECTOR
