Private School
(Day only)

Founded in 1922, Sandford Park is a small and distinctive private co-educational day school. It is situated on 2.5 hectares of secluded and beautiful wooded grounds, close to Dublin's city centre. The non-denominational nature of the school is central to its unique character and draws pupils from a wide variety of backgrounds, countries and cultures together in a secure and intellectually stimulating environment.

Sandford Park School embarked on a new chapter in its development with the announcement that as and from September 2013, Sandford will become a co-educational school with girls eligible for enrolment into all year groups.

The school's mission is to equip students with the skills to enable them to think creatively, reason critically and communicate effectively. The school accomplishes this by fostering a love of learning, a respect for cultural diversity and a strong home/school partnership. The school focuses on the needs of each individual student and encourages him/her to exceed his/her potential, both inside and outside the classroom, so that they will acquire the self-confidence and personal attributes necessary to succeed in whatever walk of life they pursue.
