

PERFORMING ARTS

Bede's Performing Arts Academy is perfect for students who love being on stage. They will work on a specific Musical each week developing skills and techniques of all three Performing Arts: Dance, Drama and Singing, with a view to create something to perform at the end of the week.

OBJECTIVES

- To appreciate the importance of a warm-up
- To build self-confidence and social skills
- To learn about acting, improvisation, choral speaking and/or creative movement
- To enhance the control of the body, voice and expression
- To use intonation to develop emotion, character or story
- To express an idea using your whole self
- To develop teamwork abilities
- To improve awareness of the importance of rehearsal and learning lines, moves or character development
- To further develop English language skills including pronunciation, speaking in public and confidence in discussion and collaboration
- To increase your vocabulary relating specifically to drama, choral speaking and creative movement.
