

Burlington Bath Castle

Bath is a “World Heritage Site” and the only city in England to be honoured in this way.

Bath is well known for its classical 18th century Georgian architecture and Roman baths that date back to 70AD. Bath is also considered to be one of the best shopping destinations in the south-west of England. Five miles away from Bath is the historic market town of Bradford-on-Avon, another popular destination. Situated on the River Avon, Bradford-on-Avon is famous for its canals, pubs, art and antique shops.
